

Alpha Course 2010

what is it about?

ALPHA is an opportunity for anyone to explore the Christian faith in a relaxed setting. Each weekly session and discussion is thought-provoking, and one of the climaxes of the course is a day or weekend away.

who is it for?

- Pre-believers, the un-churched, new believers who desire to know more about Jesus Christ and the faith. (Remember the difficult questions and awkward conversations with your relatives and friends about your faith, Christianity and the Bible?! ALPHA is here to help!)
- Christians who need a refresher course in the basics of their faith
- Those who wish to take things further with connections made at Christmas, or your daily lives.

Interested?

Please come, or invite your loved ones or friends to the (non-obligatory) introductory session:

“Christianity: Boring, Untrue, and Irrelevant?”

17 Jan 2010, Sunday

1.00pm Lunch

1.45pm Video Talk

how to sign up?

Fill in the response slip overleaf and drop your response at the registration desk in the Plaza.

Flyers with further details are also available at the desk.
