

Dear Small Group Leader,

It is no secret that the Scriptures urges all believers to be conformed to the image of Christ, to be transformed by the renewing of the mind and to be changed from glory to glory (Romans 8:29; 12:2; 2 Corinthians 3:18).

As a Small Group leader, the mystery you face is more likely a challenge as to how you fit into this image of transformation in your busy lifestyle. Work, ministry and family life, all seem to be chewing away at your time and energy. Little is left over for you to the engage in your spiritual growth and development. Often little is left over for us to engage in the recommended spiritual pathways in our spiritual refreshment and growth.

Our resources are also worn and drained. Our small group members need someone to model how to live a life of renewal amid all the demands of the market place and family life, which sometime can be chaotic. This is one of the roles that you fill as a Small Group leader.

This April 6, Saturday, will be our small Group Leaders meeting. At this meeting, it is an introduction to an exciting safari as we begin to explore together some of the rich variety and grace laden freedom to a transformational spiritual lifestyle, both to you and your small group members.

Allow me to invite you to come and experience what the life of spiritual growth and development can bring as we allow ourselves to be touched by God. In the process, your own spiritual growth can challenge and inspire your spiritual walk with God in the midst of leading your small group members.

Come and be refreshed!

Ps Peter Goh
